

Mel Fowle, Senior Indigenous Relationship Manager, PwC

Mel, a proud Cree-Metis woman, who leads the firm's Indigenous Reconciliation efforts. With a deep commitment to fostering inclusive relationships, Mel plays a pivotal role in collaborating with Indigenous communities, stakeholders, and organizations to ensure PwC's Reconciliation initiatives are grounded in respect, equity, and mutual understanding. She leads the development and execution of PwC Canada's Reconciliation Action Plan and as part of her role, Mel spearheads PwC Canada's participation in the PAIR (Partnership Accreditation in Indigenous Relations) certification process.