

Youth
ENTREPRENEUR
of the Year

Canadian Council for ABORIGINAL BUSINESS

CCAB extends nomination deadline for 2015 National Youth Aboriginal Entrepreneur Award

Due to high demand, the Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business (CCAB) is extending the nomination deadline for the 2015 National Youth Aboriginal Entrepreneur Award. The new deadline is September 21, 2015. CCAB is calling for self-nominations from up-and-coming Aboriginal entrepreneurs under the age of 35. The recipient will receive a $10,000 financial award and be recognized at CCAB's 2016 Toronto Gala.

Eligibility for the National Youth Aboriginal Entrepreneur Award

- Be a Canadian resident of First Nation (Status or Non-Status), Métis or Inuit ancestry and between the ages of 19-35.
- Self-employed for a minimum of one year.
- Submit a 30-60 second video about you and your business.
- Fill out the online application form (Note: before you do this, please have your video completed. You may not save your application form and so must be filled out in one sitting)

Selection Process

The recipient will be chosen by a selection committee in the fall. All applicants will be notified by mid-November.

For more information, please contact:

Andre Morriseau

Director, Awards and Communications
Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business
416-961-8663 ext 240
amorriseau@ccab.com

Alexander Ross

Communications Coordinator
Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business
416-961-8863
aross@ccab.com